Prayer Requests

- I. Greg Prater is in route to Nairobi even as you receive this email. The Muchakos ministry team has an exciting schedule prepared for him at Day Star University. Please pray that the Lord will be preparing the hearts of those to whom Greg will be ministering.
- II. My first four days here are action packed - just the way I like it.
 - A. Thursday Morning: Men's Bible study
 - B. Friday Morning: Greater Nairobi Staff Team - "Evangelism"
 - C. Saturday Morning: FDS
 - D. Saturday Afternoon: Missions Meeting
 - E. Saturday Evening: Parenting Teens
 - F. Sunday I preach at four different churches.
- III. Ask God to give us boldness in an uncompromising presentation of the Word of God.
- IV. Petition the Lord for strength and empowerment of the Holy Spirit as we minister the Word of God throughout greater Nairobi.

Dear Prayer Warriors,

I am taking a break from ministering this morning to get out this dispatch. I realized in my fatigue last night that I did not get our the prayer requests with the last dispatch so I send them quickly out to you.

I take your ministry of intercession very seriously and am pledged to keep you involved with this ministry as close to real time as schedule and technology will allow. We are co-laborers and I depend upon your fervent, effectual and empowering prayers.

By His mercy,

II Corinthians 4:1

Rev. John S. Mahon

Please allow me to close with dispatch with a hymn from my prayer notebook that has been especially meaningful to me...

(Psalms 104:33-34 "I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have my being. Let my meditation be pleasing to Him; As for me, I shall be glad in the LORD.")

So Send I You

So send I you to labor unrewarded, To serve unpaid, unloved, unsought unknown,

To bear rebuke, to suffer scorn and scoffing,

- So send I you, to toil for me alone.

So send I you to bind the bruised and broken, Oer wandering souls to work, to week, to wake,

To bear the burdens of a world a weary

- So send I you to suffer for My sake.

So send I you to loneliness and longing, With heart a hungering for the loved and known, Forsaking home and kindred, friend and dear one

- So send I you to know My love alone.

So send I you to leave your life's ambition, to die to dear desire, self will resign,

To labor long, and love where men revile you

- So send I you to lose your life in Mine.

So Send I you to hearts made hard by hatred, To eyes made blind because they will not see, To spend, tho it be blood, to spend and spare not

- So send I you to taste of Calvary,

(Margaret Clarkson 1915 - ???; Margaret Clarkson experienced great pain and loneliness in life. First in an unhappy home and suffering from infantile arthritis and later as a teacher in a far off logging camp in Canada. Unable to fulfill her dream of mission work due to her disability she gave herself to the service of the Lord in every way she could imagine. Of this hymn she is often given as an example of one who strove to conform her songs to Scripture and rewrote the words later in life, giving more glory to God and more hope in Christ.)
