

From Joy to Joy

Dear Prayer Warriors,

As you read this dispatch, we are just beginning our time of ministry in Cameroon, and I am reminded of the verse in 3 John proclaiming "I have no greater joy than this, to hear of my children walking in the truth" (3 John 1:4). The past 30 days have been filled with joy as we gave away our daughter, Megan, in marriage to Jason Choi, a godly man for whom we praise God, and then prepared for the departure of the GCI team to Cameroon.

"Who gives away this bride? Her mother and I."

On Saturday July, 28th we joined with friends and family from around the globe to celebrate the marriage of our daughter, Megan Mahon, to Jason Choi. The two met in an adult Bible study class at Houston's First Baptist Church - the Loop Campus, and we praise God for bringing this godly man into her life. Their wedding ceremony greatly honored God as they committed their lives and marriage to Him, and we were blessed and encouraged by our time with friends and extended family over the weekend's worth of festivities!

"How will they preach unless they are sent?"

Two weeks later, on Sunday, August 12th, the GCI team loaded up on an airplane bound for France and then Cameroon. When technical difficulties delayed our departure from Paris, God supplied a fresh plane to carry His servants and His Word to Africa. And so by your faith and prayers, we along with all 19 boxes and 7 suitcases full of Bibles, Bible study aids, and ministry supplies made it safely to the arms of our host, Rev. Taniform Peters, in Yaounde. As we stayed up past midnight sorting these resources for distribution to pastors, lay leaders, and their wives, I was reminded of the second half of this verse from Romans 10:15 which joyfully proclaims "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news of good things!"

Praise God. . .

- For faithful supporters at home who continue to support the ministry both financially and through the donation of their time and efforts in preparing these boxes of supplies for delivery to Cameroon (Proverbs 18:24).
- For the safe arrival of all team members, Bibles, and ministry supplies and materials in Cameroon (Isaiah 55:11).

Please pray. . .

- For God to move mightily through the preaching and teaching of His Holy Word in the lives of all the people to whom we will minister over the next two weeks (Hebrews 4:12).

- For strength and stamina for the team as we jump right into a busy ministry schedule here in Cameroon (Acts 1:8).

As always, I close this update overflowing with thankfulness to God for your continued and sacrificial partnership in moving the Gospel of Jesus Christ forward among the marriages and families of the world.

By His mercy,
Rev. John S. Mahon
