Dear Prayer Warriors,

Thank you so much for your faithful prayers. They are bearing real fruit in the ministry. This past week has been especially exciting and fruitful and we can see the real time results of your faith, prayers and generosity. I praise God for a team that is both gifted and skilled in teaching the holy, eternal, inerrant written Word of God. With each team member are the topics they have been teaching here in Kenya and a passage for you to claim for their ministry. Each team member is speaking multiple times each day on these varying topics – at conferences, in churches and to those training for the ministry.
