

THEME: Marriage - What makes a happy wife?

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Being Her Spiritual Leader – Ephesians 5:25-27; I Corinthians 14:35

What does this passage teach me about my responsibility to take the spiritual initiative in my marriage & family?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage? (Including in regards to church and praying daily with my wife)

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Being Her Spiritual Leader – Ephesians 6:4

What does this passage teach me about my responsibility to take the spiritual initiative in my marriage & family?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage? (Including in regards to church and praying daily with my wife)

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Being Her Spiritual Leader – Proverbs 31:23

What does this passage teach me about my responsibility to take the spiritual initiative in my marriage & family?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage? (Including in regards to church and praying daily with my wife)

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

THEME: Marriage - What makes a happy wife?

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Being Her Spiritual Leader – Deuteronomy 6:1 – 7, 20 – 25; Deuteronomy 11:18 & 19
What does this passage teach me about my responsibility to take the spiritual initiative in my marriage & family?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage? (Including in regards to church and praying daily with my wife)

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Being Her Spiritual Leader – Proverbs 4:1 – 4
What does this passage teach me about my responsibility to take the spiritual initiative in my marriage & family?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage? (Including in regards to church and praying daily with my wife)

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Being Her Spiritual Leader –Psalm 78;1- 8
What does this passage teach me about my responsibility to take the spiritual initiative in my marriage & family?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage? (Including in regards to church and praying daily with my wife)

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

THEME: Marriage - What makes a happy wife?

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Verbally Expressing Your Love and Praising Her Publically, Before The Children and In Private – Proverbs 31:28-31; Ruth 3:11

What does this passage teach me about being more verbally expressive to my wife?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Verbally Expressing Your Love and Praising Her Publically, Before The Children and In Private – I Peter 3:7

What does this passage teach me about being more verbally expressive to my wife?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Verbally Expressing Your Love and Praising Her Publically, Before The Children and In Private – Song of Solomon 4:1 - 11

What does this passage teach me about being more verbally expressive to my wife?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

THEME: Marriage - What makes a happy wife?

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Verbally Expressing Your Love and Praising Her Publically, Before The Children and In Private – Colossians 3:18; Ephesians 5:33

What does this passage teach me about being more verbally expressive to my wife?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Verbally Expressing Your Love and Praising Her Publically, Before The Children and In Private – Song of Soloman 7:1 - 9

What does this passage teach me about being more verbally expressive to my wife?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Verbally Expressing Your Love and Praising Her Publically, Before The Children and In Private – I Corinthians 7:33; Song of Soloman 6:4 - 9

What does this passage teach me about being more verbally expressive to my wife?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

THEME: Marriage - What makes a happy wife?

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: If I love her the way Christ loves the church then she will have the same access to me in terms of conversation, (her talking, me listening & expressing my love) that I receive from Christ. – Hebrews 4:16
As I read these passages about Christ’s willingness to listen to me & express His love for me, does my wife experience this from me?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: If I love her the way Christ loves the church then she will have the same access to me in terms of conversation, (her talking, me listening & expressing my love) that I receive from Christ. –Philippians 4:6, 7
As I read these passages about Christ’s willingness to listen to me & express His love for me, does my wife experience this from me?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: If I love her the way Christ loves the church then she will have the same access to me in terms of conversation, (her talking, me listening & expressing my love) that I receive from Christ. – I Peter 5:7
As I read these passages about Christ’s willingness to listen to me & express His love for me, does my wife experience this from me?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

THEME: Marriage - What makes a happy wife?

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: If I love her the way Christ loves the church then she will have the same access to me in terms of conversation, (her talking, me listening & expressing my love) that I receive from Christ. – Matthew 11:28 - 30

As I read these passages about Christ's willingness to listen to me & express His love for me, does my wife experience this from me?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: If I love her the way Christ loves the church then she will have the same access to me in terms of conversation, (her talking, me listening & expressing my love) that I receive from Christ. – Jeremiah 31:3; Psalm 23:6

As I read these passages about Christ's willingness to listen to me & express His love for me, does my wife experience this from me?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: If I love her the way Christ loves the church then she will have the same access to me in terms of conversation, (her talking, me listening & expressing my love) that I receive from Christ.–Lamentations 3:22, 23

As I read these passages about Christ's willingness to listen to me & express His love for me & express His love for me, does my wife experience this from me?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

THEME: Marriage - What makes a happy wife?

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Actually being there Psalm 23:1 – 6; Deuteronomy 31:6

God is always there for me, can I say the same about me and my wife? (Including the dinner table)

When I reflect on these passages and compare them to my willingness to spend both quality and quantity time with my wife, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Actually being there Romans 8:35 - 39

God is always there for me, can I say the same about me and my wife? (Including the dinner table)

When I reflect on these passages and compare them to my willingness to spend both quality and quantity time with my wife, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Actually being there Ephesians 5:25 - 33

God is always there for me, can I say the same about me and my wife? (Including the dinner table)

When I reflect on these passages and compare them to my willingness to spend both quality and quantity time with my wife, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

THEME: Marriage - What makes a happy wife?

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Actually being there Revelation 3:20; Revelation 19:7 - 9

God is always there for me, can I say the same about me and my wife? (Including the dinner table)

When I reflect on these passages and compare them to my willingness to spend both quality and quantity time with my wife, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Actually being there John 10:10 – 18, 28

God is always there for me, can I say the same about me and my wife? (Including the dinner table)

When I reflect on these passages and compare them to my willingness to spend both quality and quantity time with my wife, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Actually being there Isiah 40:11; Psalm 94:14

God is always there for me, can I say the same about me and my wife? (Including the dinner table)

When I reflect on these passages and compare them to my willingness to spend both quality and quantity time with my wife, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

JEREMIAH 15:16

THEME: Marriage - What makes a happy wife?

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Material needs – Ephesians 5:28 - 31

What does these passages teach me about caring for my wife’s physical needs?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage? (When I think of my office and my wife’s kitchen which comes up short? What about transportation? Eating out? Travel?)

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Material needs – I Timothy 5:8

What does these passages teach me about caring for my wife’s physical needs?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage? (When I think of my office and my wife’s kitchen which comes up short? What about transportation? Eating out? Travel?)

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Material needs – Proverbs 31:28 - 31

What does these passages teach me about caring for my wife’s physical needs?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage? (When I think of my office and my wife’s kitchen which comes up short? What about transportation? Eating out? Travel?)

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

THEME: Marriage - What makes a happy wife?

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Material needs – Proverbs 31:10 – 15 (:15)

These passages speak to the home of the godly woman. What do these passages teach me about how the husband of this godly wife and mother provided for her and in turn about me providing for my wife?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage? (When I think of my office and my wife’s kitchen which comes up short? What about transportation? Eating out? Travel?)

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Material needs – Proverbs 31:16 - 23

These passages speak to the home of the godly woman. What do these passages teach me about how the husband of this godly wife and mother provided for her and in turn about me providing for my wife?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage? (When I think of my office and my wife’s kitchen which comes up short? What about transportation? Eating out? Travel?)

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Material needs – Proverbs 31:24 - 31

These passages speak to the home of the godly woman. What do these passages teach me about how the husband of this godly wife and mother provided for her and in turn about me providing for my wife?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage? (When I think of my office and my wife’s kitchen which comes up short? What about transportation? Eating out? Travel?)

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

THEME: Marriage - What makes a happy wife?

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Being Gentle and Loving At Home. I Peter 3:7

What does this passage teach me about my wife's happiness in terms of our marriage?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Being Gentle and Loving At Home. Ephesians 5:33

What does this passage teach me about my wife's happiness in terms of our marriage?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Being Gentle and Loving At Home. Colossians 3:19

What does this passage teach me about my wife's happiness in terms of our marriage?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

THEME: Marriage - What makes a happy wife?

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Being Gentle and Loving At Home. Deuteronomy 24:5

What does this passage teach me about my wife's happiness in terms of our marriage?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Being Gentle and Loving At Home. Ephesians 5:25 - 28

What does this passage teach me about my wife's happiness in terms of our marriage?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name:

PASSAGE FOR MEDITATION: Being Gentle and Loving At Home. I Samuel 25:3 vs. Philippians 4:5 & I Peter 3:7

What does this passage teach me about my wife's happiness in terms of our marriage?

When I reflect on these passages, do they primarily convict, encourage or challenge me? Explain why:

How will I apply these passages to my marriage in the coming week and is there anything I can do today to make these passages a part of my marriage?

If I decide not to meet this need then who do I want to take my place? Name: