

Joshua 1:8

"This book of the law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it; for then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have success."

Dedication

This series of workbooks are dedicated to John Crawford - missionary, spiritual mentor and by his gracious humility, a continuing encouragement in the disciplines of discipleship and the Disciplemaking ministry. It was by his guidance and influence that I became convinced of the practice of the Daily Quiet Time Alone With God as a tool for the Discipling and maturing of others in Christ.

The following series of Quiet Times are designed to aid the growing disciple through the discipline of the Daily Quiet Time Alone With God. It should be noted though that this series is built upon the workbook “Lord Teach Us To Pray”: How To Have A Daily Quiet Time Alone With God. As such, it presupposes the knowledge and understanding of terms relating to the discipline of the Daily Quiet Time Alone With God and Prayer as taught in that workbook. This initial workbook, “Lord Teach Us To Pray”: How To Have A Daily Quiet Time Alone With God, takes the disciple from the beginning of the simple discipline of prayer and meditation upon the Word of God to the use of a prayer note book. It is the conviction of the author that the Daily Quiet Time Alone With God is the foundational discipline of Discipleship, upon which all others are built. It is therefore strongly urged that this initial workbook be completed before using the “Going On...” series, one of which is presented here. (This can be downloaded free of charge at www.gciweb.org)

It has been my experience that while only about one in ten of those who are involved in Bible study go on to be Discplemakers, a full 50% of those who give themselves to the discipline of the Daily Quiet Time Alone With God do so. It is my hope that in mastering this discipline that you will not only continue to grow as a disciple but that having mastered the first workbook that you will be equipped with a skill by which you can disciple others. Not everyone has the gift of teaching, not everyone has the gift of leadership, not everyone has been called to pastor a church, but everyone can disciple another and the beginning point of this process is the Daily Quiet Time Alone With God.

This series of quiet times therefore is left with you for your blessing in continuing down the road of a consistent and daily quiet time alone with God. It also comes with the solemn exhortation, that it was not written solely for your benefit, but also for the benefit of that man or woman whom you begin to disciple through the discipline of the Daily Quiet Time Alone With God. The question therefore changes from, “Are you having a Daily Quiet Time Alone With God?” to, “Who are you Discipling through your Daily Quiet Time Alone With God?”
