

Prayer Dispatch 03.22.13 / Easter Resources Part Two...

Dear Prayer Warriors,

This is just a quick dispatch from Russia to give you a few more Easter resources for your personal devotionals, your church, small group or Sunday school class. Easter is a great starting point for a longer study of the sacrifice of Christ on the cross. One particular area that is often overlooked is the importance of the blood of Christ as it pertains to our salvation. I am including a daily devotional series on this and other items which you may find helpful.

Last but not least let me encourage you to regularly visit both our Facebook page and our Blog – the links are below. These will be a great addition to the dispatches in keeping you in touch with your ministry as you co-labor with us through your prayers.

If you have found the attached studies helpful then visit our website for more. The column on the left labeled “Resources” will take you to free Bible studies and devotionals. Many use the devotionals as their Sunday school or small group Bible study preparations and then hand the sheet out for their group members to do as post study meditations. I hope that you will find them a blessing.
