

A CORD OF THREE STRANDS
IS NOT EASILY BROKEN

ECC. 4:12b

THOSE WHO GIVE
We ought to support such men that we may be fellow workers with the truth III John 8

THOSE WHO GO
Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations Matt. 28:19-20

THOSE WHO PRAY
You also joining in helping through your prayers II Cor. 1:11

John and Eleanor Mahon

For more information on how to support the ministry of Rev. and Mrs. Mahon or to receive their prayer letters, you may contact them at jmahon@gcweb.org or by writing to them at Grace Community Int., P.O. Box 73465, Houston, TX 77273-3465 Please make all checks payable to Grace Community Int. and place in the memo section, "For the ministry of Rev. Mahon"

“A Cord Of Three Strands”

This ministry would not be possible without you our co-laborers in the harvest. The Word of God makes it very clear that the ministry is a threefold cord. A close friend of mine, Mark Lewis, who directs the collegiate ministry in Texas and is a former missionary to Africa, often quotes William Carey, the founder of modern missions, “If you will hold the rope, I will descend to the pit...” This “rope” is a cord of three strands.

First: there is the one who goes. As sacrificial as it may be, this ministry of “going”, could not be sustained without the other three cords.

Second: there are those who pray, II Corinthians 1:11 states, “you also joining in helping us through your prayers, that thanks may be given by many persons on our behalf for the favor bestowed upon us through the prayers of many.” God makes it clear here and in other passages that those who pray are equal in their labors with those who go. They are co-laborers. Not only that but their prayers make a real difference in events on the mission field.

Third: there are those who give, III John 1:8 states, “Therefore we ought to support such men, that we may be fellow workers with the truth.” Again, a co-laborer with the one who goes.

Now if man were teaching this it would be easy to dismiss this as simple salesmanship. But God has no need of salesmanship. In God’s economy of ministry those who Go, those who Pray and those who Give are all co-laborers, sharing equally in the call to minister and in the eternal rewards of this great call.

We take this ministry seriously which is why we try so hard to keep you informed and updated with payer requests. We are all co-laborers together and these are exciting times to be involved in the harvest fields of the world.